

Society

By E. C. DRUMHUNT.

Even with the "front" in national events shifted to Chicago, Washington is not a deserted city. There is still a bit of entertaining worthy of note during the past seven days.

Congress wound up its business a week ago yesterday, and cut it short. Most of the members, many of whom were "generals" in the Republican campaign, lost no time in rushing off to Chicago; accompanied of course by their "camp followers" and also by the rapidly growing "staff" of embryo Presidents. All except Gen. Pershing, who departed yesterday for some official trip to West Point. Before going he declared most emphatically that his contemplation of resignation from active army service has no political significance but that he is to enter private business. He isn't going to go to Chicago but, after the completion of the exercises at West Point on Tuesday, he will stop in Brooklyn to review a national guard regiment.

A speech at Virginia Military Academy June 18, and acceptance of degrees at Williams University, June 21; Yale, June 23, and Harvard, June 24, will be followed by a return to Washington to take up his duties in connection with army reorganization.

A number of offers of business connections have been received by the general. I'm told, announcement of his imminent retirement having given impetus to the commercial suggestions. These are close to the general, however, as he had not yet reached the point where he had given serious consideration to any one of them.

Such a satisfactory hero—no one is to like him; his personality is so winning. Washington is hoping that the business interests won't take the general away from Washington, as he is a very important factor of society at the capital. He leased last winter the beautiful suburban home of Mrs. Henry Corbin near Chevy Chase, "Homewood," and there entertains informally quite frequently, with Mrs. Frances E. Warren, the charming wife of the general's father-in-law, Senator Warren usually acting as hostess for him. He never fails to bring forth applause when he appears in public and the sight of his picture in the "Times" has the same result as actually. He and Col. Betts, military attaché of the Italian Embassy, and the latter's assistant, Capt. Carlo Huntington, were among the distinguished people in the crowd on Memorial Day, which were shown the other night—Tuesday—at Keith's when Capt. and Mrs. Huntington were members of a box party and it was interesting to see Capt. Huntington in the company of himself parading along in fine style. He is a fine looking, upstanding young man, something over six feet tall, looking particularly well in his uniform. And how does he dance! He is a fine dancer, and quite attractive person too; and quite clever. They are both delightful additions to Washington society, but I suspect they will be going North for the summer soon as they don't like weather and the last few days have been decidedly warm.

Italian Ambassador and Wife Plan to Depart.

The Italian Ambassador and Baroness Romano are planning to depart shortly for Newport; the former to be the weather, the latter will go. The Ambassador is passing the week-end in Boston where he is a guest of the Chamber of Commerce. The French Ambassador, M. de Montigny, is in the city where he went Friday for the presentation to the college, on behalf of the French government through Ambassador Jusserand, of a memorial tablet to the twenty-four graduates of the college who lost their lives during the World War. The French Ambassador left the city on the afternoon of Friday, June 11.

Graduating exercises took place at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning, the address being delivered by Gov. Albert Ritchie of Maryland. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt delivered the address at the dedication of the memorial tablet.

M. and Mme. Jusserand are going home this summer but haven't yet set the date of sailing. It appears now that almost all of the diplomatic corps will be absent all summer. A large majority of the envoys going home for the warm weather. Our two best "lions" just now; those around whom most of the social entertaining of the last month or so, has centered, the Colbys and the Geddes, are going away shortly too. Capt. Henry, the British Ambassador's social secretary, is being by the way, and the young man, spent part of last week in the North in search of a summer embassy where the Ambassador and members of the staff may spend the summer.

Lady Geddes is going home for the summer, but will return in the fall with their five children. Which brings to mind that names of possible Canadian ambassadors still float into Washington, the last possibility coming to my attention being N. W. Rowell, of Toronto. He was a member of Borden's cabinet during the war, without portfolio. Before that he was a member of the opposition in the Ontario government. He is known in Washington, where he came last fall as Canadian representative at the International Labor Conference. Mr. Rowell was acting premier while Borden was away on leave.

MEXICAN ENVOY'S STATUS NOT YET OFFICIALLY FIXED.

There is a new envoy in our midst, though not officially recognized. Last week, I think it was, the Mexican Embassy was formally delivered to Alvaro Torres Diaz, representative of the de facto government in Mexico, by Salvador Diego Fernandez, minister and chargé d'affaires ad interim, by the late President Carranza. Of course the new charge has no diplomatic standing here, as the new regime in Mexico has not been recognized yet by the United States.

The Finnish Minister and Mme. Saastamoinen are the latest envoys to go home. Accompanied by his younger brother, they left Washington Thursday to spend the summer in Finland. They all live out in Wardman Park and have taken quite an active part in society here. The younger man is a marvelous dancer. He was a member of a very interesting party which Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wells gave last Wednesday night at the Chevy Chase Club, which by the way, was positively crowded, the wide veranda set with the many dinner parties.

With the flowers and the gay gown of the women, and the colorful sight. And the warm weather didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the dancers one bit; the floor was filled until midnight. Betty Warmley was a member of the Wells party, having just returned from a long motor trip to New York and Atlantic City, made with Mrs. Wells and a party. She has had her hair bobbed and looks very well indeed; far better than most of the girls do. She said she didn't bob it just for the looks, but thought it would be good for her hair which, though an exquisite golden color, isn't very heavy. The fact that summer is here at last was made very evident by the number of people on the floor. Wednesday night, at the Chevy Chase Club, was a party. Gen. and Mrs. William Mitchell were there, also the Walter Tuckermans, and the big dinner party which Senator Walsh gave for Mrs. Chase Kennedy and many others of interest. Walter Tuckerman, you know, is the golfing ace of the Chevy Chase Club. Both golf and tennis tournaments were on last week at Columbia Club and among the interested spectators, one afternoon, was Lady Geddes. Tuckerman was in the tournament; also John Davidson, Mrs. Blodgett's brother-in-law, E. P. Porcher, who is an A-1 golfer, Donald Woodward, and all the usual crowd.

SOCIETY IS GOING STRONG TO NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

But I've rambled. That set of Washington society which follows the "interesting things" and it is a large set—and can usually be seen in attendance at the sensational Congressional investigations and hearings, all began their vacation with a trip to the Windy City, and many of them will go to Chicago. Then there was quite a gathering that went out just for the social side of the convention and others just to see how a convention "works." From the news of the convention there constantly appear names that used to be among the social elite at the capital, but which haven't appeared in the Washington Social Register for some years now like the Murray Cranes, for instance, the Frank Lowdens, Chauncey Dewey, George Cortelyou and others; names of men in power and names that will be prominent here socially again if the Republicans should win the next Presidential election. Chicago is filled with names of present social leaders here like Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Mrs. Willard Straight—her place on the Rockville road has been taken by Mrs. Arthur Moses. Henry P. Fletcher, former Ambassador to Mexico, who is said to be a possibility for the Vice Presidential boom, the Russian, Servian and Argentine envoys, and many others of note here. An interesting spectator last week was Blasco Ibañez, the Spanish author who has a seat among the distinguished foreigners on the platform, where he sat and chatted with the gathered multitude for the forthcoming novel of American life.

VICE PRESIDENT AND WIFE JOIN MRS. WALSH'S PARTY FOR WEST.

After Mrs. Walsh reached Chicago, where she is entertaining a party including Dr. and Mrs. David Jayne Hill, Dr. and Mrs. William Miller Collier and Mrs. John Allan Dougherty, she was notified that she has been named as a member of the women's associate Democratic National committee and will accompany John F. Costello, National Committeeman representing the District, to the convention in San Francisco. Mrs. Walsh has been a long-time worker for national women's suffrage and has been prominent in District suffrage activities. Mrs. Walsh was joined in Chicago yesterday by the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, who will accompany her party to California. Mrs. Walsh has entertained and been entertained a great deal while in Chicago. The hours for the week's entertainments out there were elastic and hostesses expected their guests when they came. The entertainments of the convention were often late adjourning.

A popular meeting place for prominent Republican women was at the home of Mrs. Peabody at 1838 Prairie avenue. Buffet luncheon and tea were served daily. Among the well-known Hoover women who were seen at the house are Mrs. Willard Straight, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Mrs. Vincent Astor and Mrs. Herbert Pratt, all of New York, and many others.

Mrs. Miles Polindexter, of Washington, Mrs. Jonathan Bourne, of Oregon, and Dr. Julia Holmes Smith, of Chicago, were guests of Mrs. Willis J. Abbot at luncheon at the Chicago Athletic Club on Monday.

Among the luncheon hostesses at the Blackstone were Mrs. George Vanderbilt of New York; Mrs. Robert Burdette, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, of Washington; Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, of New York; Mrs. Thomas Robins, Mrs. John A. Stevenson, Mrs. Stanley Field and Mrs. A. Spencer, of Grand Rapids.

MISS HELEN HAMILTON,
Who, with her father, the Right Rev. John W. Hamilton, have just returned to their apartment, at Stonleigh Courts, after spending some time in Des Moines, Iowa.

Court handed down its decision on prohibition. But, as has been stated, the city was not deserted, by any means, and the entertainments given had officials and diplomats among those present as well as residential society folks.

NOTABLE DINNERS ARE GIVEN FOR SEC. AND MRS. COLBY.

Not only were parties given last week just for the Secretary of State and Mrs. Colby but they were included in a number of other dinner parties. Thursday evening the Polish Minister and Princess Edouard Albion and several of the gems from DeKoven's lovely "Robin Hood" were woven into the score. "It Takes Nine Tailors to Make a Man" served as the opening chorus; Arthur Delbert, as Robin Hood, sang the famous "Armorer's Song" with good effect and "Brown October Ale" was sung by Harlan Randall in the role of Friar Tuck, was roundly applauded. Miss Abby Morrison, of New York, played "Ellen," the principal feminine role, with charm and distinction and displayed a lovely voice both in Raff's "Spring" worked into the score, and in duets with Louis Thompson, the "Alan-a-dale."

Louis Thompson's work was perhaps the most artistic of any member of the talented cast and his lovely tenor voice was heard to great advantage in his own "Fire Song" and "The Nightingale Hag, a Lure of Gold." Walter Matson, bass, had the role of "Will Scarlet," which he filled successfully.

The chorus was made up principally of members of the Washington Opera Company, and the director, Edouard Albion, trained the cast. Dr. Alfred Hopkins serving as stage manager. During the entire act the Duke of Caferelli, of the Italian Embassy staff, played some delightful selections on the cello, with Jean C. Lagerberg, of the Swedish Legation, as accompanist. Mrs. Louis Thompson and Miss McRay alternated at the piano. Later in the evening, while the dancing was in progress, Miss Enid Sims contributed several graceful exhibition dances.

After the play, which was all to be desired, the guests went into the house and danced or stood about on the lawn and chatted and supper was served on the lawn. It was a brilliant company that Mr. Tolson entertained, including such notables as the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, Mme. de Riano, the Minister of Norway and Mme. Bryn Lima, Skogren and Mme. de Cespedes, Mrs. Francis B. Baker, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Wilbur J. Carr, J. E. Lefevre, chargé d'affaires of Panama, and Miss Ramona Lefevre, J. H. Lahovary, chargé d'affaires of Rumania; Javier Alvarez de Beunavista, of the Peruvian Embassy; R. H. Hadow and H. V. Tennant, of the British Embassy.

Others present were Congressman and Mrs. John Jacob Rogers, Judge and Mrs. Charles B. Howry, Miss Elizabeth Howry, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Marry, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Addison, Mrs. Robert Hinchley, Miss Gladys Hinchley, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano Robbins, Miss Laura Delano, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tuckerman, Rear Admiral and Mrs. H.
